ABSTRACT

Bunga Dita Lestari. 302 12 11 016.

The Impact of Product Consumption, Tin Price, Investment and Interest Rate to Inflation in Bangka Belitung Island Province in the Year of 2009-2014.

Bangka Belitung Island Province is surrounding by small islands located in Eastern Sumatera Island, close to South Sumatera Province. Bangka Belitung is famous for tin producing center. The economy in this province seems fluctuative such product consumption, investment, interest rate and inflation. This is a descriptive quantitative research with 24 samples. The method was used to describe or to analyze a result but not to conclude the wider conclusion. The method was used to measure product consumption, tin price, investment, interest rate and inflation level in this province. Besides, the influence both partially and simultaneously. The result showed that (1) product consumption from 2009 to 2014 is low; the tin price refers to Kuala Lumpur tin market 2009-2014 is high. The investment in Bangka Belitung Island Province is low where the interest rate and the inflation are also low (2) Product consumption has positive impact and have no significant to inflation. (3) Tin price has positive impact and significance to inflation, (4) the investment also establish positive impact to inflation (5) interest rate also establishes positive impact to inflation, (6) all of the variables establish positive impacts to inflation.
