Dear Dr. i Sil ValenFitr

You recently submitted an article entitled "A new record of Spanner barbs, Barbodes lateristriga (Valenciennes, 1842) (Cypriniformes: Cyprinidae) from Bangka Island, Indonesia" to the International Journal of Aquatic Biology. Since you have another accepted article in this journal that will be published in our February issue, I can not consider this one for this issue. Then I suggest you move your article to another journal of ours: Iranian Journal of Ichthyology :

<http://ijichthyol.org/index.php/iji>

I can process this article there if you agree.

Best,
Managing editor
