Dear authors,
Thank you for submitting your article to Lire journal. Your article, English Speaking Apps in Reinforcing English Literacy for Children with Special Needs in Pangkalpinang, is very interesting and we will process your article for peer-review. Before we process it, we expect you to revise your article so that it fits into the scope of our journal. We suggest you revise the title of your article so that it is more linguistic and does not seem educational. In addition, data analysis is enriched with linguistic rather than learning applications. We are waiting for your response 10 days after this email is received. Don't hesitate to contact us if you have any questions. Thank you.

Regard,
